Give Thanks for Your Story

Exodus 18:1-12

Our Scripture passage this morning takes us to an incident that happened during the life and ministry of Moses. After being reunited with his family, Moses took the time to tell his father-in-law the incredible story of God's deliverance. As we study this passage, may you not only give thanks for your story of God's deliverance, but may you be encouraged to share it, too!

Notice...

I. Jethro's _____ (vv.1-7)

- Jethro was "the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law" (v.1)
- This encounter proves to be a peaceful and productive family reunion.

II. Moses' _____ (v.8)

- Moses had a story to tell of hardship and deliverance!
- See Matthew 5:14-16

III. Jethro's _____ (vv.9-12)

- "Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods..." (v.11a)
- See 1 Tim. 1:12; John 9:25; 17:3
