The Victory of God

Matthew 28:1-15

Jesus Christ is risen! And today we celebrate His resurrection! As we conclude our Easter sermon series called, The Reclining Redeemer, we come to Matthew's account of this miraculous event. Let's examine our passage, then, to understand why in the resurrection we see the victory of God.

Notice...

I. The _____ of the Resurrection (vv.1-7, 11-14)

- Some strong evidence:
  1. The Women _____ it (v.6)
  2. The Angel _____ about it (vv.2-7)
  3. The Priests _____ about it (vv.11-14)
  4. The Apostles _____ for it!

II. The _____ from the Resurrection

- Jesus' resurrection confirms the _____ of God
- Jesus' resurrection culminates the _____ of Jesus
  - See Matthew 12:40-41; 16:1-4
- Jesus' resurrection concerns all of _____ humanity
  - See Romans 10:9; 1 Peter 1:3; 1 Corinthians 15:50-57

III. The _____ of the Resurrection (vv.8-15)

- _____-hearted versus _____-hearted

Because He lives, I can _____
