Prayer and Perseverance

James 5:13-20

As we conclude our study of the letter of James today, our passage draws our attention to the power of prayer and the need for perseverance in the Christian life. Specifically, James leaves us with two things that challenge and help us to live out our faith under pressure.

Notice...

I. A Charge to _____ in Every _____ (vv.13-18)

- See Ephesians 6:18 and 1 Thessalonians 5:17-18
- Three particular situations that warrant prayer:
 1. Pray when we're feeling _____ (v.13a)
 2. Pray when we're feeling _____ (v.13b)
 3. Pray for the _____ and _____ (vv.14-16)
- Prayer must be done in faith!

II. A Call to _____ in the _____ (vv.19-20)
